

HYDE C E PRIMARY SCHOOL
NEWSLETTER NO. 9
AUTUMN TERM
11th NOVEMBER 2016

Dear Parents

Attendance : Today we are sending home your child's registration certificate which will show you their attendance from the start of the school year, 5th September to the half term holiday, 21st October. Please read this carefully as it gives you important information regarding your child's attendance rate.

We aim for all children to have at least 95% attendance and anything below this will be having a negative impact on your child's learning as every day of school counts. We understand that from time to time your child may feel tired, under the weather, perhaps have a slight cold or cough – but please send them into school. Very often children perk up when they are with their friends and their minds are occupied in a busy classroom. Please rest assured we will always contact you should they take a turn for the worse and need to go home.

Children In Need : Next Friday is Children In Need Day – known as Pudsey Day to all of us here! Our School Council has organised a number of events for the morning and in the afternoon the children will be filling shoeboxes for the Trussell Trust to take to Bulgaria. A note from the School Council follows:

Children in Need – Update from Hyde School Council

Next Friday (18th November), we will be holding a mufti day for Children in Need.

Donations should be a 50p minimum if you'd like to dress up, but you could bring in £1 if you'd like to donate more. You should come in wearing your pyjamas or something spotty.

During the course of the day, the following activities will be taking place in school, led by our School Council Team Leaders:-

- Charades
- Spot Pudsey
- Pin The Eye Patch On Pudsey
- Pudsey Bowling

In the afternoon, we will be filling Christmas boxes for The Trussell Trust, which should be a lot of fun. Please remember to bring in items for the boxes next week.

By Toby Shadbolt, Emma Packman and Phoebe Tan

Class 1 Curriculum Overview : Class 1's curriculum overview is being sent home in book bags today.

Year R Photograph : The Reception Class photo will be published in the Advertiser and Times on 18th November. A flier is being sent home in book bags today to those children concerned.

Messy Church : A reminder that the next Messy Church is on Monday 14th November 3.30pm - 5pm in the new Church Community Centre at Hyde Church.

Harvest Festival : The total amount raised at our recent Harvest Festival service was £102.37. John Hunt from the Lotus Flower Trust sends his thanks and very best wishes to the children and parents for the generous amount raised. The amount will go towards the extension at the home for slum children in Brahmaputra, Assam.

School Crossing Patrol leaflet (year R only) : A School Crossing Patrol Service leaflet is being sent home today in book bags for year R children only. Whilst the school does not have a crossing patrol, the leaflet provides useful information for both pedestrians and drivers.

Found : A pair of glasses and car keys have been handed into the office if anyone has lost them. Please collect from Mrs Baker if they are yours.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR STARS OF THE WEEK:

CLASS 3 : Ciana Keim-Garrow

CLASS 2 : Elsa Painter

CLASS 1 : Beatrix Bancroft

In Your Child's Book Bag This Week:

- "Messy Church" flier
- "Class 1 Curriculum Newsletter" (for class 1 only)
- "First Class" photograph flier (for year R only)
- "School Crossing Patrol Service" leaflet (for year R only)
- Individual Registration Certificate

Yours sincerely

Julie Dalziell
