Task 1 Tiger in the house. Read the story of the Tiger who came to tea. If you haven't got a copy of this story at home you can read it on the internet. There is a link to a version where the story is read to you on the newsletter. Then answer these questions using full sentences. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why didn't Mummy think it was Daddy at the door? 2. Why did the tiger want to have tea with Sophie? 3. What happened to the sandwiches? 4. How did the tiger drink his tea? 5. What happened to the water in the tap?
Task 2 The Tiger's story I want you to write the story. You need to think about a beginning, a middle and an end! Can you think about the beginning? - This is when the Tiger arrived. The middle-when he ate everything. The end - after the tiger had left. I think you will enjoy writing this and afterwards you can read your story out loud to your parents.
Task 3 Note Taking About Tigers We have done this sort of thing before where we can have a clip board or a notebook and we jot down information. I want you to research about tigers. You might be able to use some non-fiction books from home or look on Children's You Tube as there is lots of information to be found. There are also some links to websites on the newsletter, if you would like to use them. Don't forget when you are researching you can just jot down notes - to be quick you do not have to write full sentences, just a couple of words to help you write a sentence later. You can use a quick drawing or a diagram to help you remember facts too.
Task 4 and 5 Create A Non- fiction Booklet About Tigers. (Do you remember we did this about our nocturnal animals?) Look at your research notes. You have to think about sections of information. For example Homes Where do Tigers live? What is the land like? Food: What do they eat and how do they get it? What do they look like? Stripes/fur/claws and so on. I want you to remember your main title and then to use sub headings. You can illustrate your leaflet with little drawings and make it really interesting.
