Dear Parents/Carers

Thank you for supporting Red Nose Day today. In total we have raised £62.

Off By Heart ~ a message from Mr Dalziell

Nearly every child participated in this year's competition which was, once again, a truly joyous afternoon for staff and pupils alike.

The conquering of nerves, the challenge of how best to present a chosen poem when faced by a large audience and the feeling of achievement were, as ever, key features of the very special event which is now in its eleventh year and in which EVERY CHILD did wonderfully well!

Class winners of what turned out to be a very close contest, judged by former Hyde teacher, Andrea Rix, to whom we are extremely grateful, were:

Class One: Faith
Class Two: Beatrix
Class Three: Elsa

Congratulations to everyone who took part.

Hyde Book Day

We will be celebrating Hyde Book Day on Friday 29th March. Children can come to school dressed as book characters if they wish. Further details of the day will be sent home on next week's newsletter.

INSET Day

Please remember that school is closed on Monday 18th March for staff INSET. We reopen on Tuesday 19th March.
