

Today and yesterday

- Read the words for doing.
- Look at the ways they change.

Today		Yesterday
I walk	I am walking	I walked
I jump	I am jumping	I jumped
I do	I am doing	I did
I say	I am saying	I said
I come	I am coming	I came

- Write the missing words.

Today I am walking to school. Yesterday I _____ to school.

Today they are coming to my house.

Yesterday they _____ to my house.

Today we are doing our work. Yesterday we _____ our work.

Today we are jumping high. Yesterday we _____ high.

- Copy the sentence and change the doing word which is wrong.

Yesterday Mum takes us swimming.

Teachers' note Introduce the activity by giving the children examples of sentences which are changed from the present to the past tense and ask them which word or words have been changed: 'The birds sit in the tree. The birds sat in the tree'; 'Today I am running. Yesterday I ran.'
