Summer Fair ~ a note from the HSFA

Thank you to all those that came to the fair last week and to all those that helped out, we couldn't have done it without you. The Auction of Promises was a huge success and all the stalls proved to make for a very enjoyable afternoon. Over £4,000 was raised to help support the school and children.

Polish Day ~ reports from Class 2

My Polish day

Yesterday, the 28th of June, we had a Polish day where we learnt about Poland and drew pictures of the Polish flag. As well as that, at the end of the day, we were given Polish sweets and donuts ~ the donuts were made by Natalia's dad.

My favourite activity was making the Polish map and labelling some famous Polish land marks such as The Royal Palace, Malbork Castle and Rysy Peak. I also really enjoyed writing letters to Natalia's dad or Tytus using google translate, to translate English words to Polish words for us to copy down onto our Polish letters to the Polish people. After that we learnt some Polish for us to speak such as:

Nie-no

Tack-yes

Cre'z-hello

Cot-cat

Toleta-toilet

I really enjoyed Polish day and I learnt a lot about Polish.

On Polish day, we had a lot of fun: we made a Polish map and found out on the iPad where the most important land marks were, what countries surround Poland and what the capital city is.

Next, we learnt what the traditions were and what food they ate. I thought it did not look as nice as our food, but most Polish people will disagree. We also learnt how they speak Polish [I was not very good at it].

In the afternoon we wrote a letter in Polish. To do this we used google translate. We had to say our name, age and ask Tytus and Natalia's dad a question. It took a long time to write in Polish and was weird reading your own writing and not being able to understand it, but it was still really fun.

Next we drew the eagle on the Polish flag: we could choose to draw or paint it. It was very hard because you had to put loads of detail and it was quite big. Everyone managed to draw a good picture.

At the end of the day Tytus's mum came in and read us a story and then we had a donut made by Natalia's dad and sweets. I really liked Polish day and I hope we have another one.

Yesterday, we had our Polish day in school. We had it because two of the people in our school are Polish (Natalia ½ Polish and Tytus full Polish) so we wanted to learn more about where they came from. Our first activity was in partners. Our task was to use make a map of Poland using a piece of A2 paper, a sheet with lots of places and sentences describing the places and an iPad to find all the places on the sheet and work out where they go on the map. We first stuck a piece of paper with Poland on it we had to stick it to the A2 paper and get the pictures of places. We used the iPads on google earth to find were the pictures go. Next we stuck the descriptive sentences next to the picture that we thought went with it.

Then we watched a Polish video that taught us how to say a few things in Polish. After lunch we wrote a letter to either Natalia's dad or Tytus (they are both Polish) we tried to do it in Polish by using google translate on the ipads. It worked out quite well and by the end of it we had a pile of letters to either of the two people.

Later on we tried to make a Polish flag by using a red piece of card and drawing the Polish white eagle on it. After we had drawn it we used white paint to fill out the eagle.

After that we went to have a story read in Polish by Tytus's mum. Winnie the Pooh and Farmer Duck. Then we watched a video about all Poland's beautiful castles and landscapes IT WAS STUNNING.

At the end of the day we all got some delicious Polish sweets and doughnuts that were kindly bought by Natalia's dad.

I had a great time and I now know much more about Poland than I did before.
