Dear Parents/Carers

Burgate Cross Country ~ report from Class 3

On Tuesday, Classes Two and Three took part in a cross country competition at Burgate with lots of other local schools.

Years 5 and 6 went first. They ran 2.2 kilometres, which was roughly twice around the large field at Burgate. There were about eighty people in the race and a medal for the top three runners. We had two people in the top twenty - Xander came tenth and Louis came nineteenth.

Years 3 and 4 went second. They ran a slightly shorter distance than Class 3. There were almost a hundred people running in the race and amazingly, Henry came in eighth place even though it was his first ever cross country event as a Year 3. Everyone did really well to finish, as the running conditions were not great with an icy cold wind, lashing rain and it was also really muddy.

After the races were over, we all got given a much deserved hot chocolate and a biscuit. A special thanks has to go to Mrs Painter and Mrs Fisher who supplied us with these. Mrs Cottrill, Mrs Cowdery, Mrs Lefroy, Mrs Bancroft, Mrs Hazell and Mrs Baggott also helped to keep us warm and smiling throughout the afternoon and it was great fun cheering on all of the children with them. Thanks also to Mr Wedick for taking us. We look forward to the next sporting event, which is a hockey festival in a few weeks' time.
