

A PICTURE STORY

One day in Summer, Robin Hood and his men were sitting round a camp fire in Sherwood Forest.

Friar Tuck came to tell them that the Sheriff of Nottingham and his men were coming through the forest with lots of money.

Robin and his men got ready to take the money from the Sheriff.

We know when the story takes place – one day in Summer.

The setting of the story is in a forest.

The characters are Robin Hood, his men, Friar Tuck, the Sheriff of Nottingham and his soldiers.

The plot so far . . . Friar Tuck comes to tell Robin Hood and his men that the Sheriff of Nottingham and some soldiers are travelling through the forest with lots of money. Robin Hood is going to take the money away from the Sheriff to give it back to the poor people.

How will he do this?

Imagine you are Robin Hood or one of his men.

Finish the story of how you took the money from the Sheriff.

Remember you are in a forest and you have to take the money from a lot of soldiers.
