Task 1 Read the story of 'Dogger' by Shirley Hughes
 Think about how Dave was feeling when Dogger was lost.
 How do you think Dogger came to be lost? How did Dave feel when finally Dogger was found?
 Write about all the nice things that Dogger and Dave do together.

Task 2 /3 Special toy lost Write this over 2 days.
Write a story about 'The Lost Toy'
 Have you got a very special soft toy? Has it ever had a getting lost adventure? Left at the park? At Grandma's? Lost at the shops?
 If your toy hasn't had an adventure you can write about then make a story up.
 Remember your story should have a beginning, a middle and an end. Think of using some interesting words in your story and writing in full sentences.

Task 3 Continue with your story

Task 4 Learn this poem (by John Kitching) Dogs big, dogs small Dogs short, dogs tall Dogs fat, dogs thin Dogs that make a dreadful din. Dogs smooth, dogs hairy Dogs friendly, dogs scary Dogs brown. Dogs white Dogs that bark all through the night. Dogs that run, dogs that walk Dogs that make you think they'll talk Dogs awake, Dogs asleep Dogs for the blind, dogs for the sheep. The best of all the dogs I know Goes with me everywhere I go.	Either Be a poet Write a list of doggy words like lead, woof, pant, etc. Use them to then help you writing your own dog poem? Or Write some of this poem out as handwriting practise. Illustrate it beautifully.

Task 5 Jobs for dogs!
 Dogs can be working dogs and many have important jobs.
 Research different working dogs. For example, there are dogs for people who are blind and dogs for the police. Can you present your information about working dogs on a big poster with some wonderful drawings?
 Brilliant work this week Tigers and Crocodiles.
