

Class 3 – Homework Table

Below is a table which breaks down all of the different types of homework that your child will receive in Class Three. If ever have any queries or concerns regarding homework, please feel free to pop in and talk to Mr Wedick.

	Spellings	Reading	Maths	Topic
How often?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * New spellings are given out every Friday and are then tested on the following Friday. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Reading at home should be taking place every day. * From time to time, your child will be asked to read ahead to a certain point in a book being studied in class. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Maths homework is handed out every Friday. * Times tables are also tested each week. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Your child will usually receive two pieces of topic work each half-term.
How much?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * 10 spellings a week. 	At least 15 minutes reading each day, but the more your child is reading, the more advantageous it is for them.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * One maths homework piece a week. * Times tables should be being learnt at home, in the car, when you're out for a walk – The more, the better. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * The amount of work and the type of work will vary from task to task. * Each piece of topic work will have an accompanying explanation sheet, which will explain the time your child should be putting into each piece.
Expectations of this type of homework	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Each word is written out 10 times in spelling homework books. * Each word is also put in a sentence and written out correctly. * If your child doesn't know the meaning of the spelling, they should look it up in a 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Reading Record is signed off each day – This could just be your initials and what was read. However, if you want to write a few notes on anything that was a problem for your child, then this is also helpful. * Your child may be able to 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * The homework task will always be linked to work we have covered in class during the week, so it should be a chance for your child to show off new skills and to consolidate what they have learnt. * Homework should be 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * As your child will usually have a much longer period of time to complete each task, the expectation is that these pieces of work are completed to a high quality.

	dictionary. <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Spelling homework books should be handed in every Thursday for marking.	read independently, but it's still useful for them to read aloud with you a couple of times a week. You could even have a special book that you read together.	completed independently – If your child needs help, then they can complete it with me during the following week. <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Maths homework tasks should be completed neatly in maths homework books.* From time to time, your child will be asked to complete a task on Mathematics instead of a written task in their books.
--	--	---	--	--