

Question screens

- Read the questions.
- Write them in the correct screen.

There are different kinds of question.

Can you help me to find the bank?

Will you be quiet?

Asking for help

Asking for information

Who lives here?

What is the time please?

Asking someone to do something

May I borrow your pen?

Will you help me to carry my things?

What is the capital of France?

- Write another question for each screen.

Teachers' note Ask the children to give examples of questions. Write them in groups according to the type of question they are (see the headings used on this page). If there are no examples of certain types of question, supply some. Talk about the different types of question people ask.